

MY MICAH PLEDGE

*“Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?”
He has told you, O mortal, what is good;
and what does the Lord require of you
but to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?*

Micah 6:7a-8

As a Christian who, in baptism, renounced the evil powers of this world that corrupt and destroy the creatures of God, I pledge to be a part of the solution to violence in our culture. I renew my baptismal vow to seek justice and peace among all people and to respect the dignity and worth of every human being. In particular, I commit myself to the pursuit of laws that keep guns out of the hands of criminals, prioritize the needs of at-risk children, provide care for mental illness, and address the many ways in which our culture celebrates and trivializes violence. I commit to holding my lawmakers, my community, and my own household accountable. I pray to be a part of the change we need, and pledge my endeavor for these things.
